

AN IRISH NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS

'Twas the night before Christmas
And down the glen lane
The candles they twinkled
In each windowpane.

The Angelus chimed
While into their beds
Climbed eleven "*T*ank Gods"*
To rest wee sleepy heads.

*"Thank Gods" –children

